7 FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

9 Gregory Allen Stanhope,
10 Plaintiff,
11 v.
12 Corizon Health, et al.,
13 Defendants.

14 No. CV-17-01810-PHX-JJT (DMF)
15 ORDER

16 At issue is the Report and Recommendation (Doc. 130) (“R&R”) submitted in this
17 matter by United States Magistrate Judge Camille D. Bibles recommending that the Court
18 deny Plaintiff’s Motion to Amend Count 5, and to Submit a Supplemental Pleading to 19 Plaintiff’s Second Amended Complaint (Doc. 121). Judge Bibles submitted the R&R
20 March 19, 2019, and because Plaintiff received ECF notifications, he was deemed served
21 with the R&R on that date. The R&R warned all parties that they had fourteen days from 22 service to file any written objections to the R&R, and failure to timely file such objections
23 “may result in the acceptance of the [R&R] by the District Court without further review.”
24 (R&R at 7.) By the terms of the R&R, objections were due no later than April 2, 2019.
25 More than a week has passed since that deadline and Plaintiff filed no objections thereto.
26 The Court now accepts the R&R and will deny the motion to amend. The Court notes that 27 even on an independent review of the motion on its merits, the Court would deny it. This 28 matter is well down the path, discovery having been closed for some time and dispositive motions now having been filed. Plaintiff already has been given liberty to amend his

1 original complaint twice. To allow further amendment at this late date would risk rendering
2 much that has gone before a waste of time and effort on the part of the parties and the 3 Court.

4 IT IS ORDERED adopting the Report and Recommendation (Doc. 130) submitted
5 by Judge Bibles in its entirety, including the underlying analysis and reasoning.

6 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED denying Plaintiff's Motion to Amend Count 5, and to 7 Submit a Supplemental Pleading to Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint (Doc. 121).
8 The matter shall proceed with briefing of dispositive motions.

9 Dated this 12th day of April, 2019.

11 Honorable John J. Tuchi
12 United States District Judge
